

Channeling Maria Magdalena – April 2014 Vrouwentraining, Gateway to Heaven

I am that I am. I am Mary Magdalene. I want to applaud you all three of you for being here. My divine sisters, I am that I am. You are divine beautiful women. I am you and you are me. I have walked these steps. My eyes have seen the same trees. I have walked the same path as you walk. Every step that you take is divine, is blessed. You are on the right path. I want to tell you now, no longer you are going to betray yourself. I want you to trust. Your heart is the diamond heart. We are nurtured with the most beautiful love, just like Jesus. Be emerged, we are going to walk along side you divine human beings that you are. I am that I am.

I want you to know that there is no difference between you and me, your path is just as sacred as mine. Once it was you who have chosen these legs and arms to walk through this earth and know that from this day forward you are anointed. I want you to applaud you for your courage for your powerful way of manifesting your intention, it is set and you are pure and you shall walk upon these grounds, you and all the divine goddesses present at this retreat will be present for this beautiful miracle which you birthed through your intention. There will be a breath of fresh air.

A breath of fresh air will flow into each wall, each stone, each flower. Yes, you will change everything, like Orestes do. People will come here and truly be blessed and filled with the pure bright light, because you are so pure within your own hearts, you are granted these gifts.

Do not worry, your heads will be trivial with details but trust, you know how you should do it, Adele. This it is how it is going to be. Your retreat is going to be anointed, beyond all measures, in each and every woman coming here on this retreat is going to be transformed from the inside out. From every cell in the body, we are going to shift, we are going to activate, we are going to release dense energy. You will go out into the world, and you will light up your households, your streets, your the city and you will be beacons of light. Shining bright like the star that you are, each one of you. Thank you for having the courage Leonie, Celeste and Adele, for taking this leap, for taking this enormous step in faith. There has been so many small things that can aggravate and take you off your equilibrium, and make you thinking and wonder: is this what we need to do? Stop thinking and just let it be. Let it be and step back, and let all energy do its work. Thank you for your energy, without you this would not have happened. You are the containers, in which this is going to happen. And so you will see small miracles, that you call miracles on this earth, happening unfolding and then know that this is being done through your intention and by the angels and the guides and by the help of all that is pure. And yes I want you to be jubilating, I want you to be in your happy space, through your happy space and through your beautiful intentions this is going to unfold and this is going to happen, and remember: don't get stuck in the small detail.

And now want you to open your crown chakra and to receive our love, receive the bright light and the love, open and let it flow, open and let it flow. Let it flow like the waters you can hear, let it be,
...and receive now.

(Downloading energy)

You are an infinite being.

(Downloading energy)

and amplify and amplify and amplify and receive and receive and receive

It has been such an honor, being in your midst's, giving you this message,
I am that I am.
Thank you.
Amen and amen.
